

The New York Herald publishes the views of a number of representative and influential business men, Republicans as well as Democrats, as to the future of the country. It is a very encouraging. The country is steadily recovering, and the fall and winter trades are expected to be the most remunerative for years.

GEN. SHREWMAN does not like Grant's book altogether well. He thinks the President would have done better to have written it on or fifteen years ago, when he was in the midst of political strife, when bitterness and strife were distinguishing features of both political parties and nearly all the leaders. Grant is too kind to the "rebels" to be Sherman.

The closing of the Bartlett Court yesterday was made the occasion of a pleasant reunion of the people of the neighborhood, who, in losing a court that, in the interest of the taxpayer, should have been open, were glad to see an excellent school building, which they should now make haste to equip to the best style, putting in small school library for the benefit of the children.

GEN. SHREWMAN does not like Grant's book altogether well. He thinks the President would have done better to have written it on or fifteen years ago, when he was in the midst of political strife, when bitterness and strife were distinguishing features of both political parties and nearly all the leaders. Grant is too kind to the "rebels" to be Sherman.

TAMMAM threatens to bolt the Democratic ticket. Ex-Mayor Cooper is nominated for Governor. There are some likelihoods, without, that Cooper will be elected. He will be elected by the voters of the city. He will be elected by the voters of the city. He will be elected by the voters of the city.

The secretary of the State Board of Health, Dr. J. D. Burtin Lindsay, reports the sanitary condition of the State as very good, and that the country health officers are enthusiastic in their duties. They are anxious to know and do their duty, and the secretary is busy every day sending out instructions. For the first time in the history of Tennessee the State is organized for sanitary work.

The Bradstreet Agency reports 185 failures in the United States during the week ending July 17, 1885, against 170 in the preceding week, and 212, 182 and 181 in the corresponding weeks of 1884, 1883 and 1882 respectively. Middle States, 45; New England States, 27; Southern States, 33; Western States, 40; Pacific States, 10; Territories, 30; Canada, 19; and the United States and Canada, 190.

As a result of the recent election in the borough of Aylesbury, where the newly enfranchised agricultural laborers voted for the Liberal candidate for Parliament and elected him by 250 majority, the Liberals are predicting great success for themselves this fall, and count on a majority in the House of Commons of 120 over the Conservatives, and victory over the Parliament, an alternative combined.

Many housewives in Washington have tastefully decorated their house-fronts by growing vines of various kinds. The Virginia creeper, one of the most popular plants for this purpose, is usually selected, owing to its light green color and its rapid growth. It is a beautiful plant, and its leaves are very ornamental.

LORD WOLMLEY, who received a most enthusiastic greeting as he entered the English House of Lords last Tuesday, is starting under the most disagreeable reports of his Egyptian fiasco. He is in a very awkward position, and is in a very awkward position, and is in a very awkward position.

LORD ARTHUR'S (Mr. Gibson) Land Purchase Bill for Ireland divides the land into two classes, one for the poor and one for the rich. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

The people of Holy Springs will to-day enthusiastically celebrate the opening of the railroad connecting that city with the city of Memphis. It is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill, and it is a very good bill.

something the appearance of government bonds, and one of the theories advanced was that some one undertook to steal it, but finding it worthless, or that he or she was likely to be executed, he or she had sold it. The bonds were not worth anything, and the value of the bonds was not worth anything.

Another Good Game Between the Atlanta and Columbus Clubs—Sardis and Va. Semblinski. Opening of the Racing Season at Saratoga Under the Most Favorable Auspices.

The Traverses Stakes for Three Year Olds Won by Berman—A Poor Day at Northmouth Park.

HELENA, ARK., July 21.—Arkansians are indignant at Vice-President Hendricks. The occupation of the State by an Indiana man for appointment as superintendent of the Hot Springs reservation, is a disgrace to the State.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 21.—To-day's game with Columbus was interesting. The Atlanta team was victorious, and the game was a very good one.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The mania for converting Sunday into a holiday in Washington has developed a peculiar feature. Capitol Hill has been placed under a proclamation: "To men and women, hold your public meetings to decide on a speedy means of purification of the city of Washington."

other points have been killed in the trans-Ohio Grande near the border by Indians, and that a band of fifteen raiding warriors have been in Kansas near Manning River, ranch. So far as learned no life has attended the Indian raid in Texas.

GEN. GRANT SINKING. Not Little Probability of the Patient Surviving Here. Than a Day or Two at the Farthest—Unfavorable Symptoms.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Last night was the most quiet experienced in this city in a number of years. The sky was cloudless and the air was dead. The moon was so bright and clear that it appeared unendurable. At an early hour this morning a light breeze from Lake Michigan which has blown stronger all morning, and the sun having appeared, the temperature rose to 70° at 10 o'clock, 74° at 11 o'clock, 76° at 12 o'clock, 78° at 1 o'clock, 80° at 2 o'clock, 82° at 3 o'clock, 84° at 4 o'clock, 86° at 5 o'clock, 88° at 6 o'clock, 90° at 7 o'clock, 92° at 8 o'clock, 94° at 9 o'clock, 96° at 10 o'clock, 98° at 11 o'clock, 100° at 12 o'clock.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

other points have been killed in the trans-Ohio Grande near the border by Indians, and that a band of fifteen raiding warriors have been in Kansas near Manning River, ranch. So far as learned no life has attended the Indian raid in Texas.

GEN. GRANT SINKING. Not Little Probability of the Patient Surviving Here. Than a Day or Two at the Farthest—Unfavorable Symptoms.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Last night was the most quiet experienced in this city in a number of years. The sky was cloudless and the air was dead. The moon was so bright and clear that it appeared unendurable. At an early hour this morning a light breeze from Lake Michigan which has blown stronger all morning, and the sun having appeared, the temperature rose to 70° at 10 o'clock, 74° at 11 o'clock, 76° at 12 o'clock, 78° at 1 o'clock, 80° at 2 o'clock, 82° at 3 o'clock, 84° at 4 o'clock, 86° at 5 o'clock, 88° at 6 o'clock, 90° at 7 o'clock, 92° at 8 o'clock, 94° at 9 o'clock, 96° at 10 o'clock, 98° at 11 o'clock, 100° at 12 o'clock.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

DETROIT, Mich., July 21.—The hot wave still holds out. At 2 o'clock the thermometer stood at 80° in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it stood at 82°. The minimum was 74° at daylight. The only dew from the clouds was a haze that did not last long.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.

Through the United States.